Don't Stop Tobacco.
HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.—The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is to suffer a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin Physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking Baco-Curo, it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with no per cent. interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our ironclad guarantee, at $1.00 per box, three boxes, (thirty days treatment), $2.50, or sent direct upon receipt of price. SAVED LINCOLN'S LIFE.

An Old Kentucky Gentleman to Whom the Nation Is Indebted.

Austin Gollaher, a playmate of Abraham Lincoln, is 80 years old today. He lives with his son, Thomas Gollaher, on the top of Muldraugh's Hill, three miles south of Hodgenville and the many friends of the old gentleman are helping him celebrate the important event in royal style. Gollaher himself, however, is not permitted to enter very largely into the festivities of the occasion, owing to an unusually severe attack of rheumatism, from which he has been a sufferer for years, and which of late is giving him more than ordinary trouble. His spirits are not impaired by his ailment, though, and he promised yesterday, when interviewed, to "hit his lick with the balance of 'em." For an old man Gollaher is surprisingly lively in his conversation, due, doubtless, to the fact that he seldom has a chance to see a person from the outside world, and is compelled to make up for lost time when such an opportunity occurs.

Gollaher was older than the martyred President, and consequently remembers many circumstances of their boyhood days. His conversation, however, is rather barren of details, and from some of his stories it is surmised that he has somewhat confused what really happened with what he has heard. There is no disputing the fact, though, that he was Lincoln's playmate, and even the historians have given him brief credit for that honor, but he is practically unknown as the one-time savior of the youthful Lincoln's life. In Nicholas and Hay's life of Lincoln short mention is made of Gollaher, and the fact of his service to the subject of their work is dismissed summarily and not entirely without a suspicion of doubt.

Gollaher's present home with his son is within a dozen miles of where the rescue of Lincoln is credited with having taken place. In all the life of the old gentleman he has never for more than a few weeks at a time been outside of his native country. The house is a common place affair of rough clapboards, surrounded by a tin box. The first greeting is from the dogs; then, at the door, you will likely meet the old gentleman, hobbling on his crutches, with a broad-brimmed hat pulled low to protect his failing eyes, and a hearty welcome in his face. He is dressed in heavy woolen garments, rough, but comfortable. His first thought is to invite you to a seat. Like yourself, he is anxious to talk of Lincoln. After half an hour's listening to him you are apt to be disappointed and conclude that after all he hasn't very much to say. Speaking of former visitors he said yesterday: "Yes, I am known somewhat all over the United States. Men come from away off to here to talk of Abe Lincoln. Years ago a man came here from New York, getting up a history, and wanted to know what I could tell him of Lincoln. He sent me one of them, but it had a lot of things in it that wasn't so."

"It was in 1812 that my father settled near the Linkhorn (Lincoln) farm, and in a few days Abe and his mother came over to see mother and me. Abe seemed sullen, and at the first meeting I didn't have much to say to him. I wasn't taken with his appearance. After mother and me went over to see them, though, we were together quite often, and we got to be great friends. We played all over the hills 'down on South Fork, and when school took year we went to the school over on the other side of the creek, but it wasn't no use for me to try to keep up with Abe. He was great at larnin', and ciphered out and read everything he could find. Down in the creek bottoms there 'was lots of iron weeds, an' Abe'd gather them to pile on the fire at night to make light for him to study by."

"Well, did you not save his life at one time? How was that?"

"Yes, yes," and his face brightened. "It was when he was fishin' one day. The creek was high, an' we had to coon cross on a log and Abe fell off. Abe wasn't much of a swimmer, an' I got a sycamore limb and pulled him out."

"How old was Mr. Lincoln then?"

"Bout 9. The histories all say Abe was only 7 years old when he left for Indiana, but he must have been about 9. They wasn't there, though, and of course can't be expected to get everything right."

Mr. Gollaher has long been a devout Christian, and holds his membership in a small Baptist church on the Louisville and Nashville road, about a mile beyond his home. He has not visited the church since the cold weather began last fall, but still hopes to see it in its completed state in the spring. The church has long been in an unfinished condition, and the old gentleman has worried considerably over this fact. The funds, however, are now guaranteed for its completion.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. STATE SENATOR.
 We are authorized to announce
 Dr. A. D. JAMES,
 Of Muhlenberg county, as a candidate for State Senator in the 8th Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.
REPRESENTATIVE.
 We are authorized to announce
 Esq. W. I. Rowe,
 Of Centertown, as a candidate to represent Ohio county in the Lower House of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Republican party.

It is rumored that another Republican candidate for Representative from this county will announce in a short time. So far Esq. W. I. Rowe is the only candidate.

HOPKINSVILLE will entertain the next Session of the Kentucky Press Association and a trip to the Atlanta Exposition is among the probable treats for the knights of the pencil.

THE people sympathize with the Governor of the State in the shame Tuesday's tragedy heaped upon his family but who will sympathize with a State where such innumerable and bloodcurdling highlife tragedies are enacted.

The meeting of the Kentucky Republican Clubs held in Owensboro Wednesday and yesterday was quite a success. Much enthusiasm prevailed and the meeting augurs well for an active and thorough campaign in every part of the State.

FULTON Gordon wiped out in blood the wrong he suffered and we can conceive of no just cause for his deed. He ought to have killed them both and he did it handsomely. Now let the jury acquit him as it should do and thus set an example to the villains who go about seeking the homes they may destroy.

KENTUCKY is promised a battle royal in the contest for U. S. Senator on the Democratic side of the house. With Buckner, Blackburn, McCracken and Brown as starters, it will make a political Derby of more than ordinary interest. Buckner, the sage of Glen Lily, and the hero of Fort Donelson, is the best man in the bunch and deserves to win the empty honors of the caucus nomination.

THE awful tragedy which occurred at Louisville at noon Tuesday should prove a warning to erring men and women. Fulton Gordon the wronged and frenzied husband took desperate revenge and he was justifiable in his act but that cannot bring back the once happy home which a beautiful woman and her paramour have destroyed. Sin may delay the payment of its wages but when it does come it is death.

"A tree is known by its fruits" is a truth of universal application. It is a moral yardstick by which every man and every institution may be accurately measured. If one were about planting a tree on his premises would he not inquire as to its fruits? What is the tree good for? Does it bear regularly and is it of a variety that guarantees it to be worth the space it occupies and the outlay necessary in planting? Is it good or bad? Is its fruit pleasant to the taste and does it contain nourishment for the body or does it bear a blighted, unsightly and nauseating fruit? Does its bloom fill the air with fragrant or with disagreeable and disgusting odors? No sensible man would think for a moment of planting a tree in his yard or garden nor on his farm whose fruits would be bad, worthless, disagreeable, not useful for some purpose. Now if it be wise for individuals to act so, is it not equally wise for communities to exercise the same caution in their planting? In view of these observations and in the light of these everyday and common sense truths, let's look at a tree planting Hartford is called upon to make and inquire whether the tree comes up to the measurement required of trees planted by individuals. The tree proposed to be planted in the town is of a well known variety. The proprietor of the nursery from which it hails has succeeded in planting many trees like it over the earth and in fact has had such trees here until the people rooted them up a few years ago. What is this proposed tree good for? What are its fruits? When it grew here before and everywhere else it has now grown wherever it is growing now, its fruit is and has been ever the same. So then if planted here it cannot be expected to change the character of its fruit. If it be good it will remain good, if bad, bad. The leopard cannot change his spots. The fruits of this tree are disorder, drunkenness, law-breaking, violence, crime, poverty, want, misery, heartaches, tears, bloodshed, murder, dishonor, graves and death. Its bloom is the blight of manhood, its fragrance the ruin of youth. Its every fruit and every influence is evil and degrading. Will Hartford plant the tree? God forbid!

THE Coroners Jury in the case of Fulton Gordon at Louisville brought in a verdict Wednesday evening of a justifiable homicide and he was released on a bond of $3,000 in both cases. He is yet suffering from nervous prostration and it is feared he will become insane.

AFTER robbing about 20,000 voters of the right of suffrage the Democratic Legislature of Tennessee over the protest of the best men of all parties, has seated Turney, the man whom Evans defeated at the polls for the Governorship of the State last November. This is, if possible, a more flagrant steal than the one committed in Louisville in the name of law, by which Mr. St. John Boyle was denied the seat on the Appellate bench to which he had been elected by his fellow citizens.

THERE is no question save that of the offices on which the Democratic party is a unit. The party is in favor of getting and holding the offices at any and all hazards, but on everything else Democracy is split into factions, which rend each other with all the ferocity known to American politics. So accustomed has that party become to internal broils and contests and dissatisfaction that in viewing the harmony pervading the Republican party, both as to principles and management, Democratic bosses and editors are want to turn a verdant green. Not satisfied at being green—with envy—or from causes over which it has no control and prompted also, no doubt, by the theory that misery loves company, the Herald would fain forget the broils and bickering in the ranks of its own party and seek to sow the seed of discord in the ranks of the Republicans by casting insinuations upon the management of the Republican Club recently organized here. Is the Herald not aware that the Club organized here did not contain every Republican in the county nor 300 or 400 good and substantial Republicans who would do honor to the party as representatives? The Club was only lately organized with about 100 members and was entitled to send but 1 delegate for every 10 members or 10 delegates in all. The promoters of this club would have been glad had the whole 2,500 Republicans in the county belonged to the Ohio County Republican Club, or some other like club, and thus the county would have been entitled to send 250 delegates. But the Herald is not supposed to deal with any matter that savors of a fact. And a paper of the Herald's caliber whose highest aim has been that its party might rise not by its own merits but upon the sought-for downfall of its political opponents, has less and less weight in the community as the days come and go, and in view of the fact that from a majority of 600 to 800 the Herald has in a few years led its party to a minority of 300 or 400, that sheet and its sentiments will merit still less notice and consideration.

THE Populist Convention. Monday's Courier-Journal says: "The Populist committee that was appointed last week to make arrangements for the approaching convention met yesterday afternoon at Wibbe's printing shop, on Market street, near Hancock. The State convention will take place May 15, and it is reported by State Secretary W. P. Marsh, of Lawrenceburg, that 'a thousand delegates will be in attendance.' There will be nine delegates from Jefferson county.

On May 11 the county convention will be held. Every precinct in both county and city will be represented. The meeting will take place in Labor Hall and will be called to order at noon.

AVENUE The Governor's Son Killed by Fulton Gordon

Mrs. Gordon Killed With Arch Brown

ALL ARE PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Tuesday's Post has the following to say regarding the Gordon-Brown tragedy which occurred in Louisville Tuesday:

Fulton Gordon killed Arch Brown and then shot and killed his wife, Nellie Bush Gordon, in a house of ill-fame kept by a low negro on Madison street in this city at noon to-day.

Gordon had known of an intimacy existing between his wife and young Brown, son of the Governor of Kentucky, and yesterday he applied to the police to place a watch over his wife. But they failed to do so, and he took the matter in his own hands, and as a result the horrible double murder occurred.

Gordon kept a watch on his wife and saw her meet with Brown, and followed them to the bagnio kept by the negro. They had been coming to the place every Saturday for five weeks. Last Saturday they failed to show up, but came to-day instead. They arrived at 11 o'clock, on foot, and went at once to a room in the second story of the house. After they had been there a few minutes they ordered some beer. At 11:30 o'clock Gordon reached the house and engaged two rooms, paying for them, saying that he wished them for himself and a friend who would come later. He was shown into a front room downstairs, right beneath the one which his wife was occupying with her paramour.

Then Gordon slipped upstairs and pushed open the door which had been locked by Brown and Mrs. Gordon. As he did so Brown sprang from the bed, having on no clothing but his underdrawers. Without a word Gordon began firing. Brown had his pistol lying near and seized it and returned the fire. Gordon soon emptied his revolver, and then sprang on Brown and clutched his pistol. A scuffle then ensued for the possession of the weapon. In the scuffle every piece of furniture in the room was turned over and blood from Brown's wounds bespattered the walls and floor. Gordon got the weapon and fired one shot into Brown's body, and Brown sank to the floor dead.

Just then, Mrs. Gordon, who had been watching the conflict, sprang at her husband in a terrible fury. The latter turned and fired one shot at her just as she grappled with him. The bullet hit her just over the heart.

Mrs. Gordon turned and ran. Just as she reached the head of the stairs Gordon fired at her again and hit her on the right side of the body. Gordon then ran to the head of the stairs, and snapped the pistol again, but all the loads had been discharged.

Just then Officers Reilly and LaPelle came up and arrested him. He said: 'I caught them in the act, and shot them both.'

Gordon was at once taken back to the scene of the killing, and placed on a lounge in the hall. He was covered with blood and seemed to be injured, but was revived and said he was simply in a faint.

Brown was found lying in the southwest corner of the room, where he was shot, right beneath the window. A chair was standing by him, and the body was lying doubled up with the head between the wall and the dresser, which stood in the corner.

Arch Cain Hurt. Archie Cain, a barber from this city was seriously hurt by a fall in Louisville Sunday night says the Owensboro Messenger. Cain went up on the excursion and while in the city jumped not wisely, but too much. There are several reports as to how the accident happened but the following is thought to be the most reliable as it was told by one of his friends: Cain was too busy to see straight ahead, and he was hurrying to the Union depot to board the Falls of Rough train for Owensboro.

One other report was that he fell from the railing to the river bank at the northern extremity of the depot. A third report is that he fell from the rear end of the train at the west end of the depot and that a knife was found near him with blood on the blade, leading to the theory that he was stabbed and thrown from the train. One of his crowd who returned to this city, however, says the first is correct and that Cain's condition is considered uncertain.

Dr. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. P. KINCHLOE, Conway, Ark.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

CATARRH OF THE KIDNEYS.

Sometimes Called Bright's Disease—Dr. Hartman's Latest Lecture.

In the course of a recent lecture at the Surgical Hotel Dr. Hartman said: "Catarrh of the Kidneys is a very common disease, growing more and more common each year. The symptoms are pain in the back; scanty, high-colored urine, containing albumen and various sediments; nausea, and sometimes vomiting; puffiness of the face and feet; dropsy of the legs; shortness of breath and general weakness, pallor and dryness of the skin, chilly feelings, alternating with fever and sleeplessness.

"A table-spoonful of Pe-ru-na should be taken before each meal, between meals and at bedtime, and enough Man-a-lin to produce one natural action of the bowels each day. When the disease is of long-standing heated Pe-ru-na should be applied to the back in addition to the above treatment, and the diet consist principally of milk and dry toast. Avoid liquors and tobacco."

MEDICAL BOOK FREE.

The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co., of Columbus, Ohio, are offering free, post-paid, two medical books, one on catarrh and catarrhal diseases, the other on spring medicines and spring disease. These books contain the very latest and most reliable information on these important subjects.

Divine County Convention.

The Convention was called to order by Chairman J. F. Kimbly, who stated the object of the meeting. Lawson Ross was elected Chairman and P. H. Haffy, Secretary. A committee on resolutions was appointed with F. H. Roberts as chairman. While the committee was getting ready to report, E. T. Franks addressed the convention.

The resolutions reaffirm the Republican platform of 1892, and is opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. That part of the resolution which endorsed W. O. Bradley for governor was received with loud applause from the large and enthusiastic convention.

The resolutions were adopted with every man in the convention standing on his feet and yelling for Bradley. The delegates go to the convention at Louisville unopposed as to the rest of the ticket, but it is understood that they are for Taylor for Attorney General, N. B. Chambers for Register of the Land Office, and G. W. Long for Treasurer.

India is one of the most interesting of countries, and Mr. Kipling is able to write of it as no one else. His work will be looked forward to with world-wide expectation.

Perhaps the most beautiful series of pictures ever presented of the Rocky mountains will be found in a collection of fourteen original paintings, executed by Thomas Moran for the May Cosmopolitan. To those who have been in the Rockies, this issue of The Cosmopolitan will be a souvenir worthy of preservation. This number contains fifty-two original drawings, by Thomas Moran, Oliver Herford, Dan Beard, H. M. Eaton, F. G. Attwood, F. O. Small, F. L. H. H. Dolph, and Rosina Emmett Sherwood, besides six reproductions of famous recent works of art, and forty other interesting illustrations—ninety-eight in all. Though the Cosmopolitan sells for but fifteen cents, probably no magazine in the world will present for May so great a number of illustrations specially designed for its pages by famous illustrators. The fiction in this number is by F. Hopkinson Smith, Gustav Kobbé, W. Clark Russell, Edgar W. Nye, and T. C. Crawford.

The English Chamber of Commerce. At the thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of the United Kingdom, which was held from March 12 to March the 14, Sir Albert K. Rolitt, president, said:

American Tariff Reform has (notwithstanding the adverse influence of the resurrection of the silver question) so far stimulated our export of cotton goods as to have doubled their value in February as against January, to have increased the quantity from eleven to eighteen million yards during 1895 as against the corresponding period of 1894, and to have made this year's shipments exceed those of two years ago in both quantity and value. Similarly there have been larger linen shipments to the State for both the last month and the two months of the present year, while in woolen the advance in values has been three times and in worsteds four times more than in 1894, and in quantity quite 400 per cent. So, too, the same beneficial influence has made itself in great increases during both the month and year and in both quantity and values of our consignments to America of cutlery, rails and iron and steel goods generally, and more especially of tin plates, as also in earthenware and china, and to the extent of 600 per cent., in shipments of raw wool.

The proceedings of the third day terminated with a banquet. Mr.

Wilson was not present upon this occasion, but we were represented by Mr. Bayard who was toasted as the Ambassador of the United States of America, his name being coupled with that of Hon. James Bryce, M.P., president of the Board of trade. In returning thanks, Mr. Bryce said:

There are signs of revival in trade, particularly in that which is the greatest of our markets and the closest with which we are in direct touch, viz., the United States of America. We owe that to the settlement of the Tariff question. I cannot help congratulating our friends, Mr. Bayard, about that, and asking him to congratulate the great man whom he represents here in his dealings with that Tariff question. (Hear, hear.) Our trade with the United States is a reviving trade, and particularly felt in Yorkshire; and it will soon spread, I have reason to believe to other parts of the country and other branches of our industry.

We regret that Mr. Bayard's remarks were not published; hence it is impossible to say how he accepted the congratulations upon revival in English trade which Mr. Bryce said were due "to the settlement of the Tariff question" in the United, and at our expense.—[Economist.

Thirty Thousand Dollars to Authors.

For "Story of Mystery." The Chicago Record's recently inaugurated publication of serial stories cleverly constructed so as to enlist the reader's interest in the discovery of a well-concealed mystery, disclosed only in the last chapter, has been received with such great favor by its readers that it is impelled to secure for their entertainment the best work of the best living story-writers in the English language. To this end it makes the following announcement:

The Chicago Record offers to authors the sum of $30,000 for original stories written in English, no parts of which have ever been heretofore published. The offer is made upon the following conditions: $20,000 will be paid in twelve cash prizes for the best twelve stories. The money will be divided as follows: First Prize $10,000 Second Prize 3,000 Third Prize 1,500 Fourth Prize 1,000 Fifth Prize 800 Two Prizes of $600 each 1,200 Five Prizes of $500 each 2,500. Making a total of $20,000. The first prize will be paid for the story adjudged to be the best, the second prize for the story adjudged the next best, the third prize for the story adjudged to be the third in merit, the fourth prize for the fourth in merit, fifth prize for the fifth in merit, two prizes of $600 each and five prizes of $500 each, thus making the total of twelve prizes in $20,000.

$10,000 additional will be paid at space rates for stories of accepted value, but which may not be awarded any of the twelve cash prizes. The stories submitted in this competition are required to be "stories of mystery," in order that readers may be offered prizes for guessing the solutions of the mystery in advance of their publication.

The stories must reach The Chicago Record, at its office of publication, 181 Madison Street, Chicago, Ill., before October 1, 1895, and the awards will be made as soon after that date as they can be read and judged. For full information authors will address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher of The Chicago Record, Chicago, Ill., U. S. A.

A CRIME

Is the Way Frederick R. Coudert Characterizes Great Britain's Attitude Toward Little Nicaragua.

Frederick R. Coudert, who is recognized as leading in practice of international law in this country, and whose services as counsel to the Behring Sea Arbitration Commission brought him prominently before two continents, was seen recently.

When asked for his view of report that force would be used to compel Nicaragua to accede to Great Britain's demand, Mr. Coudert said:

"If I were an enemy to Great Britain I would be glad if she did. Our people don't want bombardment by foreign people on this continent. Whether it is against the Monroe doctrine or not, the American people have a strong feeling on that subject.

"They don't like to see a big nation bullying a little one, even if the big nation is the United States and the little one Chili.

"In the next place, these small republics on this continent belong to one family, if not by blood, at least by proximity, by points of contact and by sympathy with the example of free government which we have set. It would seem to be a wiser policy for Great Britain to get through with Egypt before starting with Nicaragua. She is arousing the resentment of one great nation in Europe, and it may not be prudent for her to inflame the prejudices, if you choose to call them so, of the great nation of the Western Hemisphere.

"Bombarding helpless towns is at best brutal and expensive. It may turn out that the expense may be greater to Great Britain than to Nicaragua.

"The most painful part of it is that so great a Government should deliberately take a step backward. The whole sentiment of the world is against a settlement of disputes by the old fashioned way of war, and arbitration is growing to be the hope of the civilization.

"As the century closes, I cannot help thinking that this coercion on the part of a powerful nation against a weak one, which might result in war, is worse than a blunder—it is a crime.—[Louisville Post.

State Politics.

The Springfield News-Leader says: The Republicans of Washington county met in mass convention at the court house Monday for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Convention. W. F. Neikirk was chosen chairman, and W. M. Hardin Secretary. Upon motion the chair appointed a committee on resolutions consisting of C. R. Filiatreau, W. D. Sharp, F. S. Hill, E. S. Mayes and W. O. Reed. Resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted in which they renewed their faith to the party principles and arranged the Democratic party for its maladministration and misrule in both State and National affairs. The delegates were instructed to cast the vote of the county for Hon. W. O. Bradley, for Governor; Geo. W. Long, for Treasurer; C. J. Walton, for Auditor, and W. C. Bell, for State Superintendent. They further resolved that in the event the State Convention decided to name a man for U. S. Senator to allow the name of John W. Lewis to be presented and to use all honorable means to secure him the endorsement.

The Glasgow Republican says: At a mass meeting of the Republicans of Metcalfe county at Edmonston Monday to select delegates to the State Convention. Hon. David Faulkner was chosen chairman and Perry Murray, secretary. They instructed their delegates to vote for Hon. W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster, for Governor; Dr. C. J. Walton, of Hart, for Auditor; Hon. G. W. Long, of Grayson, for Secretary; Hon. W. S. Taylor, of Butler, for Attorney General; W. R. Dickerson, of Rockcastle, for Superintendent, and Hon. E. H. Hentz, of Barren, for R. R. Commissioner of the first district and sent their delegates unopposed as to the remainder of the ticket.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so; as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron-clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Cross, Wis.

Dear Sirs:—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physicians told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which ever inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
